or institution which is supported in whole or in part by public funds.

The proposed project does not replace or overlap any type of work or job which is or should be considered a regular function of the local government and for which the local government unit has responsibility under the law. Exception may be made when a local government unit is unable to secure sufficient funds by the usual methods to finance a regular project.

The sponsoring unit has insurance coverage or other arrangement to discharge a liability that may arise for Workmen's Compensation as a result of an injury.

"The sponsor will accept such recipients as are determined by the supervisor of general assistance and assigned to the work program. The monthly earnings of the assigned family member may not exceed the family's monthly budget deficit or assistance payment."

Underway in 56 Areas

Caillat commented that for many years the Illinois Public Aid Commission has encouraged supervisors to initiate, promote and develop work projects on a local basis pursuant to Section 1-13 of the Public Assistance Code of Illinois. As a consequence, work programs have been established by the city of Chicago and some 35 downtown local governmental units.

"In order to make work programs effective in local governmental units, the state aid, which is appropriated for general assistance, must be expended in the establishment and operations of work programs, with approval of the IPAC."

"House Bill No. 2, enacted by the First Special Session of the First General Assembly, appropriated an additional $35,000,000 to the IPAC for general assistance purposes."

"A re-application provision was attached to this bill. Additionally, the bill provided for establishment of work programs in the portion of the statute which follows:

"The supervisor of general assistance for each governmental unit receiving funds hereunder shall initiate and promote a program whereby each adult male recipient of general assistance who is physically able is required to provide such services as shall be prescribed by the supervisor. Such services may include, but shall not be limited to, the maintenance of public buildings and grounds, state and county hospitals, forest preserves, public playgrounds, streets, highways and other public facilities."

"Each recipient shall be subject to the approval of the commission and shall take into account the prevailing hourly wage rates paid by the governmental unit for like work. In order to make such programs effective, a portion of the funds appropriated by this act may be expended to provide necessary supervisory personnel and equipment for the programs to purchase workmen's compensation insurance and to provide

Goodman, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elvin Goodman, 2013 Grand avenue; Michael B. Ropac, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Matthew Ropac, 1724 Spring avenue; Eddie Lee Salmond, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. William Salmond, 142 Carver street; and Charles E. Ragan, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Ragan, 1955 Joy avenue.

Leaving today is Curtis Wolford, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Wolford, 2323 Sheridan avenue. Two brothers, Larry D. Martin, 18, and Dennis R. Martin, 17, sons of Mr. and Mrs. Charles Martin, 2118 Iowa street, will leave in October.

"The law quoted refers to seven kinds of services which a work program may involve, but this is not to be construed as limiting their determination of what service is most needed by your individual community," Caillat told the supervisors.

"Although such program must be approved by the commission, I can assure you that every effort will be made to consider favorably your requests for approval of specific projects which you believe of particular value to your locality."

Bids on Venice Library Addition Exceed Budget

Bids received on constructing an addition to the Venice public library exceed the amount of available funds, Frank DeWitt, president, reported after the opening of bids at a library board meeting Thursday night.

Bids opened on combined general, plumbing, and electrical work were $37,215 from the Leo Wolf Co., $38,358 from G. H. Sternberg and Co. and $39,380 from the General Contracting Co. Adding the $37,215 low bid to a $58,458 heating and air-conditioning proposal and $19,377 architectural fees, the board arrived at a $155,000 total, or about 50% in excess of the $30,000 accumulated in the library account for construction work.

The $58,458 figure on heating and air-conditioning work was obtained by the architects from the J. E. Gram Co. of East St. Louis. The Gram firm performed such work on the main library building and was asked to submit an offer because it is familiar with the existing equipment there, DeWitt said.

Only action taken was to receive the bids and take them under study. The next library board meeting was set for Wednesday night, Aug. 10.

Brown Tells Optimists Of GC Park Successes

Harold Brown, Granite City park district recreation superintendent, held the Noonday Optimist Club in complete awe Thursday with what members later termed an "enlightening" presentation of past accomplishments and future plans of the park district's year-round recreational program.

Brown told the 28 assembled Optimist members of this season's success in bringing to Granite City youths varied athletic experiences under the guidance of professionally trained instructors.

He stressed the many benefits that Granite City families have obtained by participating in the free or very moderately priced athletic and cultural exhibitions sponsored by the district administration, such as "Music Under the Stars," women's softball exhibitions, summer sports camp program, summer recreational program and future events including two open invitational tennis tournaments, basketball clinics under the tutelage of professional players, fall football leagues for teenagers and adults, similar to the baseball and softball leagues now in operation, and many other features still in the planning stage.

Brown stressed the district's willingness to cooperate with all communities in these planned cultural and athletic programs to promote the area public-relations-wise as a national center for such activities, and to promote a cultural growth from within the community as well. He concluded his talk by pointing out that the rapidly expanding growth of the park district's diversified programs could be largely attributed to the far-sightedness and keen interest shown by the five commissioners.

"I read that $210,000 was awarded for personal injuries in a single auto accident. Jurors now consider loss of the father's earnings for his family over the years, pain and suffering, loss of companionship, plus medical expenses. Is it unrealistic to carry less than $50,000 or $100,000 liability insurance today?"

Survey Of Use Of Local Taxes Could Point Way To Economies

Granite City council members are right when they say that many local property owners do not understand how their taxes are determined and where the money goes. As pointed out at last week's aldermanic meeting, the tax bills sent out each spring provide the funds to operate not only the city government but the school district, township, park district, levee district and the county government.

With their large staff of employees, their many buildings and their current expansion, the schools consume more than half of the local tax money. Cities are the next largest taxing bodies, and the levee district currently is running a strong third.

The question of whether local taxpayers are getting a dollar's worth of service for each dollar of taxes was raised on the council floor, with the decision being made to seek an opinion from the help of a survey by Southern Illinois University. The survey results should prove interesting because taxpayers have a right to know whether their taxes are being wisely used.

The fear that some people blame the city government for high tax bills may be well founded, although each tax bill includes a statement of the rate for all six taxing bodies. It should be made clear that the six governmental agencies are all separate bodies which govern themselves and are not controlled by any of the other five. Thus, the six boards must be held accountable for spending of tax funds by their agencies.

As proposed by the city council, the survey will deal with financial policies of each of the taxing bodies. Perhaps it can point the way to economies in the cost of government by pinpointing any current practices that appear capable of being improved.

Conventions Vital Part Of Process By Which Nation Peacefully Chooses Its Leaders

The political conventions just ended serve as a lesson in our form of government-by-the-people, and provide renewed evidence that the democratic process is a workable, orderly means of selecting America's leaders.

To accomplish the quadrennial task of choosing a president, the public and the political parties go through a period of discussion and controversy, but all is settled without bloodshed or violent upheaval of the government. By the end of each convention, the party usually has closed ranks for a united campaign against its opposition. By the end of the voting, the nation has closed ranks behind its elected officials.

Through most of its history, the United States has been a country of two parties, a third party only occasionally becoming a factor. In the early years, the Federalist party represented strong nationalism, and the Republican party under Jefferson defended interests of the states. In the Jackson era, the name of the then dominant party changed from Republican to Democratic. The Federalists were waning, and the Whigs became the other major party. The Whigs in turn were replaced by the Republicans in the mid-1850s.

Each party sets many of its own rules, but the government regulates the official ballot and much of the party machinery. Through primary elections or conventions, the parties in most of the states choose committeemen or delegates who then conduct the nomination of national standard bearers.

For the general election, each state chooses a group of presidential electors equal in size to the number of its members in the national House of Representatives, plus its two Senators. The original plan of the constitution was that these electors actually would exercise a choice as to who should be president. However, the tradition has been for each party to nominate candidates for the presidency and vice presidency in advance of the choice of electors, who then are pledged to vote for the designated candidates.

The November voting indicates which party's electors are the winners, even though their names are omitted from the ballot. As a practical matter, the public knows who will be president immediately after the election is held, but this does not become official until votes are cast in the electoral college, each state casting all of its votes for the party which led in the balloting. Thus, all of Illinois' 27 electoral votes will go for one candidate or the other, and whoever receives a majority of the electoral votes will be declared elected, regardless of the popular vote.

It is an old and yet an ever-new process, the best that has been devised anywhere in the world to assure that the public can fairly select its governmental leaders in a peaceful manner.

Book learning is not all of education, but it is an essential part.

Nation's Population Center Moving Steadily This Way

The Quad-City community is the center of the world for those people who live and work here. Perhaps it will one day be a central point for millions of people—the population center of the United States.

Taking up the returns from the 1950 census, the government has announced that the nation's new population center is in Clinton county, Ill., less than 50 miles east of the Quad-Cities. It has moved 47 miles west and 12 miles south from the previous center near Louisville, Ill., which held the honor only briefly. The 1950 census pinpointed a cornfield near Olney, Ill., but new calculations were made when Alaska and Hawaii became states. The geographical center is much farther west than Illinois due to Hawaii's location in the Pacific.

The Bureau of the Census defines the population center as the point on which the country would balance if all the people had equal weight. It has been moving steadily in this direction since the 1790 census showed it to be near Chesterfield, Md. It reached Virginia in 1810, Ohio in 1860, Kentucky in 1880 and Indiana in 1890, crossing into Illinois during world war II. With the western half of the nation continuing to grow faster than the eastern half, it is possible that the next census could bring a new distinction to this area—the center of the country.

Traffic regulations, rigidly and impartially enforced, save lives on our streets and highways.

Preparations Being Made To Put New Judicial System In Effect

It is only logical that justice can be meted out more fairly by a judge who is paid a salary rather than one whose income is based on the percentage of convictions and the amount of the fines. With this in mind, the Illinois state legislature last year adopted most of the changes recommended for the Illinois judicial system.

The new laws will be effective in 1961, and steps already are being taken in Madison county to carry them out. Tentative plans call for the number of justices of the peace to be greatly reduced, with each remaining justice being paid $6,000 a year, with an allowance of $3,600 for a clerk and $1,800 for expense. Granite City, Venice, Nameoki and Chouteau township Precinct One would make up one of the five justice districts to be created.

The current plans are being made by the legislative committee of the Madison county board of supervisors, in cooperation with the county bar association. These preparations should ease the transition to the new system next year.

Disabled Persons Need Not Lose Social Security

Ralph Brasher, manager of the East St. Louis district office of Social Security, in advising workers who are too disabled to work, said today, "Loss of a valuable protection could happen to you. Your social security benefits can wither away and lose much of their value if you are too sick to work and you do nothing about it."

"This loss could apply not only to you but to your survivors as well. If your sickness has kept you from working and your health is not improving, it is easy to get protection by sending a letter, a friend, or by visiting your social security office. "Seriously sick people now need only five years of social security credits to freeze their social security record. These five years, however, must have been to your credit in the ten years before you were forced to quit work. Your sickness can be a mental one, a physical one, or one which includes both. You don't have to be completely helpless; if you cannot work regularly and are not likely to work regularly because of your health, you should at least inquire.

"Even though you are not able to get cash disability benefits now because of your age, it is still important to freeze your record if you are too sick to work now and you will remain that way. If you can freeze your social security record, it will protect the amount of your benefits at three different times: (1) when you are old enough for monthly cash disability payments; (2) when you die and leave survivors eligible for monthly payments; and (3) when you get monthly payments at retirement age."

The nearest social security district office is located at 435 Missouri avenue, East St. Louis. SCREENS & STORM INSERTS REPAIRED. GRANITE CITY GLASS, 18TH & EDISON.

Double-Ring Ceremony For Hillicki-Hoffman Nuptials

Altar bouquets of white gladioli and stock against a background of emerald leaves decorated the sanctuary of St. John United Church of Christ, Saturday afternoon, for the wedding of Miss Geraldine Thelma Hoffman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Eugene Hoffman, 3138 Myrtle avenue, to Ronald Lee Hillicki, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. John Hillicki Jr., 1629 Primrose avenue.

Rev. Paul Surbey officiated at the two o'clock double-ring ceremony.

The bride was escorted down the white carpeted aisle by her father who gave her in marriage.

She was gowned in a pure white full length wedding gown of French imported Chantilly lace, fashioned with a Sabrina neckline, delicately outlined with a scalloped edge of lace.

Traditional long sleeves, ending in points over the wrists, were fitted into the basque bodice, re-embroidered with gleaming iridescent sequins and pearls. The back of the gown was detailed with triple tiered lace, cascading and terminating into the chapel length train.

Her headpiece was a Queen's crown of crystals and pearls, attached to a short bouffant veil of imported pure silk illusion, and she carried a crest bearing a quiet of philanthropy and stephanitis.

Her attendants were Miss Jacqueline Steele of Tilden, Ill., maid of honor, and Miss Sharon Hillicki, sister of the groom, Miss Nancy Little of Longview, Tex., and Mrs. Russell Collins, bridesmaids.

Their dresses were of pure silk organza, ballerina length, with the bridesmaids wearing aqua and the maid of honor in petal pink. The brides wore a white Venice lace with narrow shoulder straps, and their 4-H Club holds.

The regular weekly meeting of Sand Prairie 4-H Club was held Saturday morning at St. Bartholomew's Episcopal Church with Linda Henley and Donna Staydhar leading the opening pledges.

During a business session, plans were made to attend a style show to be given at a St. Louis department store, this evening. Girls were asked to meet at the church by 5:15 and before proceeding to St. Louis.

Linda Lester, co-leader explained the correct method of recording individual achievements for the club's records and a demonstration of a cookie baking was given by Lois Forrester to conclude the meeting. The Sand Prairie 4-H Club will continue the regular sessions until September.

"Business is great on Main Street now that it's paved with modern concrete!"

It's good news for business when worn-out downtown streets get the fresh, clean look and wonderfully smooth ride of modern concrete. Same results when they use concrete around the new shopping centers, too.

Today's concrete can really save money for taxpayers. Its smooth, solid driving surface stays that way for 50 years and more. Upkeep costs stay low (as much as 60% lower than for asphalt).

And for busy streets, concrete adds safety. Its grainy surface gives dependable skid resistance. And light-colored concrete reflects light, saves on street lighting costs.

So, if they want concrete streets for their business district, tell them you're all for it. You'll be in the benefits.

Wortman Aides, Foster And Sheer Go To Prison

Two associates of area gang leader Frank "Butter" Wortman left Friday for Springfield with U. S. deputy marshalls to start one-year prison terms.

Gordon Foster, 38, of East St. Louis, and Robert Sheer, 41, of Belleville were sentenced to one year in Federal prison and fined $300 after pleading guilty in June to a charge of conspiracy to evade the payment of federal gambling taxes. The fines are to be paid before they are released from prison.

Foster and Sheer were charged following 1957 raids by Internal Revenue Service agents on a handbook in the East St. Louis area, resulting from a federal investigation of Wortman operations. Foster, a relative of Wortman, was taken into custody here several years ago when state troopers raided a gambling setup in the old Villa Verdes building.

Auto Fire, $20 Loss

A backfire at the carburetor on the engine of a 1958 auto owned by William Jackson, Glen Carbon, caused about $20 damage Saturday afternoon at 15th street and Delmar avenue. Firemen from the new station were called to the scene.

charges of drunkenness, disorderly conduct and using profane language. Presley and Henderson were transferred from the city jail to the county jail for failure to pay the fines, Casparovic said.

Driver Dozes, Hits Tree

A motorist whose auto crashed into a tree when he dozed at the wheel about 11:30 a.m. Saturday suffered severe chest injuries. He walked to the nearby home of Robert Osborn, 3029 N. N. drive, North Granite, to seek aid and collapsed on the living room floor.

The driver, Donald J. Brockway, 33, an Alton railroad worker, was alone when the crash occurred in front of the Osborn home. Mrs. Osborn said she heard a noise and then someone on the front porch. She went to the door and admitted the injured man when he asked for help.

"I opened the door and as he walked in he fell against me and then collapsed to the floor. I immediately called police," Mrs. Osborn told the Press-Record.

As he was being carried to a waiting ambulance, Brockway told police he felt asleep while driving. He was traveling west on N. N. drive.

At St. Elizabeth Hospital, he was given emergency care. He was deep cut to his chest and then transferred to Missouri-Pacific Hospital, St. Louis.

Man Struck On Highway
A St. Louis construction worker was struck by an auto Friday morning as he was crossing the four-lane roadway at the intersection of Highway 67A and Edwardsville road to go to work at the Blast Furnace Dept. of Granite City Steel Co.

The pedestrian, Blaise Pod, 60, was admitted to St. Elizabeth Hospital to be treated for injuries to his right arm and left hip. His condition was not serious, it was learned.

Police said he was crossing the four-lane roadway, also State Route 162, from a parking lot south of the regular plant entrance. A car, a 1964 Ford, struck him and he was struck by the southbound auto of Melvin G. Schlemmer, 32, of Edwardsville.

The motorist told police he noticed a group of men standing on the west side of the roadway, and there were a number of northbound cars making turns into the parking lots. Schlemmer said he was proceeding slowly because of the traffic and the pedestrian suddenly appeared from behind a car, making a turn.

The impact threw Pod on the hood of Schlemmer's car. The injured man is employed by an industrial construction firm. He was taken to the hospital by ambulance.

Auto Overturns, 2 Hurt
Two St. Louis youths were injured about 2:20 a.m. Saturday when the car in which they and two others were riding overturned on U. S. Highway 67A at the Missouri avenue curve, crashing into a pole and signboard.

The driver, James Hamilton, 17, who suffered abrasions to his forehead and received emergency care at St. Elizabeth Hospital, was charged with driving while under the influence of liquor, reckless driving and illegal transportation of liquor.

He pleaded not guilty to all counts before Judge Magistrate Casparovic and was freed on $200 property bond for a hearing Aug. 19.

The other youth, 19-year-old Kenneth Hamilton, was treated here for head injuries and transferred to St. Louis County Hospital.

Charges also were placed against the uninjured pair, Michael Roskin, 17, and Lee Burdick, 18, pleaded guilty to charges of illegal possession of liquor.

Meeting Tomorrow On Alleged Assault Case

A conference has been scheduled for tomorrow morning between Venice Mayor John E. Lee and a 25-year-old resident of Weaver street, Venice, who alleges that she was criminally assaulted by a police officer while in custody July 16. Her parents also will attend the meeting.

Venice police are investigating the report. The officer on duty at the time has a good record but will be asked to take a lie detector test to aid in clearing him of any suspicion, Chief Robert Trower said today.

Trower said he reprimanded the girl and ordered her released after she was held from 12:55 a.m. to 9 a.m. July 16 on a disorderly conduct charge. At that time, she made no mention of being attacked, the chief told the Press-Record today.

The girl has filed no charges, but a publication circulated by a Venice resident alleged that she was attacked in the city hall courtroom adjoining the police department. The man believed circulating the paper has a police record and is being investigated, Trower said.

The chief said the girl moved here from Chicago this spring and was arrested on five charges May 14 after a disturbance in front of a Venice tavern. She was fined $150, of which about $70 was paid and the remainder stayed, he added.

and were fined $5 and costs each.

Abrasions To His Right Knee
Suffered by Lloyd Rains, 33, of 910 Twenty-fourth street, in a collision Sunday afternoon on U. S. Highway 67A on the curve at the end of Missouri avenue. The other driver, a 1964 Ford, struck him and he was struck by the southbound auto of Melvin G. Schlemmer, 32, of Edwardsville.

Police said Jones was traveling south and Rains was going north when the crash occurred, damaging the left front ends of both autos.

Cycle Spills, 2 Hurt
Two men were injured about 3:30 a.m. Saturday when the motorcycle on which they were riding on Highway 3 north of Grandview Ave. left the pavement and went into a ditch, according to a report by the county sheriff's office.

They were identified as Robert R. Chaney, 23, of Wood River, and Raymond Lake, 33, of 204 Madison avenue, who were given emergency treatment at St. Elizabeth Hospital and released. Chaney suffered a cut to his face which required four sutures to close, and Lake's injuries were not listed by the hospital.

Falls Out Of Auto
County authorities reported yesterday that a local man, William Anderson, 43, of 5401 Highway 162, was injured about 4 a.m. Sunday when he fell out of an automobile as a turn was being made into the driveway at his home. Anderson was treated at St. Elizabeth Hospital for bruises and cuts to his left arm and released. The sheriff's office said the auto was owned by David Anderson of the same address, but the report did not list the driver of the vehicle.

Injured In Auto-Pole Mishap
Complaining of back injuries, after her car missed an intersection turn and collided with a telephone pole at 3rd and C streets in the Granite City Army Engineer Depot at 7 p.m. Saturday, a motorist identified as Mrs. Ruby Dorsey, 1215 Bissell street, Venice, was taken to St. Elizabeth Hospital in a Dept. ambulance. She also was treated for a cut to the left elbow and abrasions of the right knee prior to her release. The left front fender of her car was damaged, depot authorities said.

Change In Yard Widths Proposed For GC Zoning Law

A sweeping change in Granite City's zoning ordinance to reduce the width of side yards in residential areas developed before 1953 is to be submitted to the Granite City council tonight.

The change was requested several weeks ago by Alderman Charles Meyer, who said the five to eight-foot side yard restriction in residential zones is working a hardship in older sections of the city where individual property owners are planning to erect garages and outbuildings.

It was Meyer's suggestion that the ruling for width of the yards be changed to set the limits in conformance with existing property lines in the neighborhood. If there is a neighborhood in which most of the side yards are three feet wide, the proposed amendment would permit persons with wider yards to build within three feet of the property line.

Some opposition to the change is expected, since supporters of the zoning law believe the wider yards will prevent the development of slum areas.

In the newer subdivisions, seven- and eight-foot side yards are required, making a distance of 14 to 16 feet between homes. The R-3 side yard requirement is the minimum permitted under the zoning code.

It has been estimated that about 90% of the city was developed before 1953 and would be included in the suggested change.

Pollution Conference Set For Tomorrow

An anti-river pollution conference of Granite City officials and representatives of the Illinois Sanitary Water Board, scheduled for last Thursday, has been rescheduled for tomorrow morning at Springfield.

Mayor Davis said the city has forwarded to the state board a detailed report of the undertakings of the Citizens' Master Sewer and Drainage committee and a report on local progress toward eliminating river pollution.

He explained that City Atty. William Beatty was unable to go to Springfield last week. Among those accompanying the mayor to the Springfield conference will be Atty. Beatty, G. W. Hoelscher, chairman of the citizen group, and Donald Cairns, engineer for the citizen committee.

The state is seeking a specific timetable of dates by which various steps toward anti-pollution are to be completed. The East Side Levee & Sanitary District has included Granite City in its district-wide anti-pollution program, but the city decided several months ago to await the outcome of a special survey being conducted by engineering staffs of local industries.

Thursday Evening

Park Recreation Program To End With Family Picnic

The Granite City park district's summer recreation program will formally conclude its eight-week session of youth activities Thursday evening with a family picnic, dramatic skit presentation, and the awarding of trophies to contest winners. Mrs. Helen Bjorkman, summer recreation director, said today.

Parents of children enrolled in the summer program are invited to bring picnic baskets and participate with their youngsters in the evening's concluding activities. The picnic group will be invited to attend, he added.

Cox said a similar program is in its second year of successful operation in East St. Louis. He offered to ask representatives of East St. Louis hospitals, doctors, labor groups and industries to attend the local meeting, tentatively planned for early September. He said they would be able to answer any questions on how the program has functioned in their city.

Cox, who was active in establishment of the East St. Louis school, expressed confidence Friday night that no problems that may be encountered here will be insurmountable. Judeman told the group that the proposal would be a "wonderful program" and said he is sure any problems can be solved if there is a spirit of cooperation.

Outlines Handling Costs
Smith outlined the cost of handling blood and said some procedure for financing will have to be devised. He said the charge is held to a minimum both for taking the blood and for administering it to those needing transfusions.

Persons who are covered under the cooperating program pay no fee for blood other than the cost of administering it, he explained.

Edwin Reiske, president of the AFL-CIO Tri-City Trades and Labor Council, expressed the hope that industry and labor jointly will support the proposal.

EUGENE ORTOLAN, winner of 18 trophies in less than a year of semi-customized automobile competitions, holds his latest award won in the MCTA Autorama held in Decatur, Ill. His entry, the Panther, is a modified 1954 Victoria.

Semi-Customized Auto Winner of 17 Trophies in Eight Months

Most 1954 model cars are by this time about ready for the junk heap... at least that's the idea some new car dealers would like to implant in the mind of an owner of such an "antique". With some people the idea might work, but not with one person in particular.

Eugene Ortolan, a 25-year-old Granite City painter who works with Contractor Arthur Roseman, has taken a used '54 Ford Victoria which he picked up several years ago for $1695. With a magic wand, a couple of thousand dollars and long hours of hard work he has transformed the sheet-metal Pygmalion into a semi-customized beauty which has won 16 trophies and other prizes in less than eight months time.

While Ortolan's super-bug might be termed a Victoria by the masses who remain ignorant of the specialized intricacies under the hood, to aficionados (those in the know) it is quite something else.

10 Coats Of Paint
For those who appreciate the finer things in automotive life, this multi-coated black beauty (10 layers of enamel)—houses a 1956 Thunderbird engine, sports a 57 Mercury transmission and is manually manipulated through its three speeds by a Corvette straight-shaft gear shift.

If that isn't enough to puff the heart of any car buff, the interior appointments are all of rolled pather, and the tail-lights are of custom design and make.

There is only one drawback to the "Panther," as the automobile is affectionately termed by its proud owner. A measly four inch clearance between road and skirts prevents the Panther from bounding up short, steep inclines like its real-life African counterpart. But then, who can have everything.

With all this sleek power and beauty, Ortolan's car has never thrilled to the tire shredding excitement of a race track. This pampered hybrid of the automotive world is for exhibition contests only.

Like a well-penned French poeple, it is designed for eye glances and admiration only. In fact, its bachelor owner refuses to drive it to work or use it for general everyday needs. He has another car for such routine affairs.

The Panther stays home at 2549 Adams street, wrapped in shrouds like layers of cloths to keep off any stray particles of dust which might mar its gleaming finish. But, apparently no matter how carefully the car is pampered, some ugly smudges manage to appear.

Spengler Team Breaks Tie For Lead In Classic League With 4-0 Victory

Spengler Oil moved out in front in the Classic Softball League at Wilson Park Thursday night by scoring a 4-0 shut-out victory over Millie and Mickey's. The two teams had been tied for first place with identical 7-1 records.

In breaking the deadlock, Spengler broke the scoring tie with a run in the top half of the first inning and was never headed, adding three insurance markers in the sixth.

Nelson Hagnauer, whose total of shutout victories is reaching record proportions, was in complete control of the game although allowing seven hits. The safeties were scattered among five innings, with as many as two occurring only in the second and third frame. The winning team bunched five hits to produce its runs.

Jack Spengler led the night's hitting with three safeties in three trips to the plate. His bagge included a triple, a double and a home run. He was joined by Art Borchers and Leo Siegar, each scoring two hits, and six safeties. The winning team bunched five hits to produce its runs.

In the other scheduled game, the Ravens won on a forfeit from the Legion Post 113 and remained five games out of the lead, although moving up to within four games of Millie and Mickey's.

Grace Baptist Holds Lead With Last-Inning Rally

Grace Baptist regained its full game margin in the Baptist Softball League by edging Emmanuel 12-11 Thursday night at Lee Park.

Outrigger 13-12, the Grace team trailed 7-2 in the last half of the third inning, but rallied to move ahead 11-7 with two in the third, three in the fourth and four in the fifth.

Emmanuel rallied for four runs in the top of the seventh to knot the score at 11-11, but Grace won on a forfeit. The winning team bunched five hits to produce its runs.

Ray White was the winning pitcher and Stanley Manning the losing pitcher. Manning's efforts were hampered by 13 Emmanuel errors, compared to five by Grace.

Leading hitters for the victors were Don Crain, three safeties, including a triple; David Fraley, two doubles; Rich Fanning, two hits; and Jack Logan and Jim Rollen, each with a double. For Emmanuel, Thad Clark collected a triple and two other hits, and Harold Smith and Ron Parker had two hits each.

The schedule pairs the two teams again at Lee Park, Meadow Heights, at 8:15 p.m. Thursday. In other games, Suburban will oppose Columbia at 7 p.m. Tuesday and Emmanuel will meet First Baptist at 7 p.m. Thursday.

Park Preparing For Two Tennis Meets In August
Tennis activities will be on the increase at the Wilson Park courts, it was announced today by Harold R. Brown, recreation superintendent for the park district.

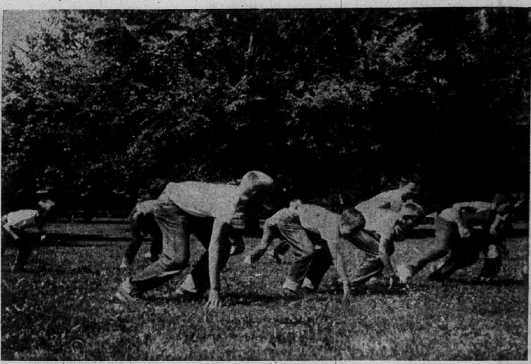

An open tournament is scheduled for Aug. 18, 19, and 20 to be followed the next week by a Madison-St. Clair county tournament.

Further details will be given in the next few days, Brown said.

Park Planning Trip To 'Big Ten' Football Game Oct. 8

Football fans are not being overlooked in the Granite City Park District recreation program. It was learned today from Recreation Sup. Harold Brown, who said he is making arrangements for at least one busload of fans to attend the Illinois-Chicago State "Big Ten" game, at Champaign in October.

Brown has been authorized by the park commissioners to arrange for a chartered bus and obtain tickets for 26 couples, and the total cost for transportation and tickets will be $15 a couple.

"This is the U. of I. homecoming game and I know a lot of local residents are interested in attending. If the demand is great, we can arrange for another bus or buses."

Brown added that reservations can be made immediately at the park office and will be processed in the order that they are received. The event is scheduled for Saturday, Oct. 8, and both the trip there and back will be made on the same day.

During each phase of the trip, costs for meals will be borne by the fans, since the $15 charge covers only the bus and game tickets.

Family Swim Sessions Start Wednesday At Wilson Park Pool

Family night swimming sessions at the Wilson Park pool will be started Wednesday evening. It was announced today by Park Sup. O. H. Williams.

The fee will be $1 for a family, sans admission cost at last year and the sessions will begin at 6 p.m. each Wednesday for the remainder of the swimming season.

The $1 fee entitles a family of any size to swim at the pool and has proven to be popular during past summers.

YMCA Makes Final Plans For Summer Youth Activities

Registration for the third and final summer instructional session for swimming and gymnastics at the YMCA will begin tomorrow at 10 a.m. and continue through Friday, youth counselors Jim Reinhardt and Eva Bruton said today.

Swimming instruction for the 8-to-15 age group will begin on Friday, the closing day of registration in the YMCA office.

Special attractions have been included in this month's program of YMCA activities, Miss Bruton added.

There will be a special hike on Tuesday, Aug. 30, to the Chain of Rocks Locks. The hike will be limited in number to the first 80 youths who register for the event.

On Tuesday, Aug. 30, a hundred youths who have registered will go by bus to Grant's Farm in Affton, Mo., for an all-day picnic. Free soda will be available, but each youngster is expected to provide his own lunch.

A 75-cent charge, covering transportation costs, will be made.
